

Adam Smith

I became a community governor in 2014 as at that point I had no direct link to the school. I now have two children who attend the school with a third starting in September 2020. I am a project manager for a multi-national civil engineering company and am the governor link for premises maintenance and site Health & Safety.